ORLEANS, VERMONTOrleans News PageNews and Views from this Hustling VillageOrleans Community Fair.

Do not miss the "community fair" to be held Tuesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 7th. Orleans opera house. Ladies, this is the time to buy your handmade articles for Christmas. You can also find cut flowers, canned goods, vegetables and many other useful articles at prices that are reasonable. Look to the Christmas trees for five and ten cent articles. Gentlemen, come to the community fair care for your eats. Everything from a sandwich to a boiled live lobster. Watch for the hand bills.

Congregational Church Notes.

The mid-week service will be held in the chapel tonight at 7.30. The topic is David and Jonathan. At the close of this service all the officers connected with all the organizations of the church are requested to come together to consider some matters relating to the church and its work.

Morning worship Sunday at the usual hour. The pastor's sermon will be upon "Building Broken Walls."

The Sunday school will meet at the close of morning worship. We are all glad to note the increasing attendance.

The Sunday evening service will be held in the church at 7.15 o'clock. We shall spend a portion of the hour in song and the pastor will speak briefly.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Class meeting tonight at 7.30 o'clock. Sunday services. Sermon at 10.30 o'clock, followed by the Bible school to which all are cordially invited. The Junior League meets at 3 o'clock. The meeting at 7.15 will open with the singing of two or three hymns in which all are asked to join. District Superintendent Lowe will be present and preach.

Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock there will be a probationer's meeting. All young Christians are especially invited and any who would like to know what the church stands for.

The Philathea class was entertained at the home of Mrs. Harry Dickens, with Miss Lilla McMullen as hostess, Tuesday evening, Nov. 23. Some matters of business were transacted, after which the time was given to reading by Miss Pearl Dwyer, music by Misses Alice Smith and Dwyer, and in making candy which was sent to the two absent members of the class for Thanksgiving. A committee was appointed to carry flowers and a box of fruit to one of the members who is sick. A box of fancy articles made by the young ladies of the class has been sent to the bazaar to be held in Boston Dec. 23, 34 and 4th for the benefit of the Peabody Home for Crippled Children. The class greatly regrets the return of Miss Bernice Lincoln to her home in Stanstead. The hostesses provided as a treat, fudge and marshmallows. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed together.

Dr. Spencer's Lecture.

The second number of the lecture course is a lecture by Dr. George H. Spencer. He comes very highly recommended as a lecturer, who holds the interest of his audience to the last and leaves with his hearers many a good thought that keeps them thinking. Seats can be had at Austin's.

Thanksgiving Goings and Comings.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Baraw of Lyndonville spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Baraw; N. L. Stimpson and Mrs. Myrtle Perley were with Martin Abbott; Glover, Mrs. Fred Knox of Epping, N. H., and Harry Wellman of Boston were at the home of H. B. Smith; Edmund Gross and family and R. A. Dutton and family were at the home of G. J. Gross; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Farrar were at Lyndonville; Miss Juline Rogers was with her parents at Morrisville; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Whipple were with friends at Lyndonville; Mrs. Harriet Lance and daughter Velma were at Cabot; B. L. Lumbr of St. Johnsbury was at his home here; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Swett were at Ryegate; Mrs. L. E. Spafford and daughter, Doris, were at Barnet; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stannard were at St. Johnsbury; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gray of West Charleston and Mrs. James McFarlane of Barton were at Colby Stoddard's.

ORLEANS

The library will be closed Tuesday, Dec. 7.

Miss Viva Shepherd is working for Mrs. Kipp.

Miss Ila Marshall spent Sunday at Derby Line.

The Orleans club has installed its new billiard table.

Miss Mabel Ware is caring for Miss Clara Dwinell.

Mrs. C. S. Stevens and Mrs. H. C. Bassett are seriously ill.

The Odd Girls met with Mrs. E. A. Demick Monday evening.

L. G. Taylor of Wolcott is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Jennie S. Kipp.

Mrs. Albert Cowles of North Crafts-bury is visiting Miss Juline Rogers.

There will be a regular meeting of the Eastern Star tomorrow evening.

F. H. Ingerson has gone to St. Johnsbury to work in the scale shops.

W. W. Seymour of Lynn, Mass., was a Thanksgiving day guest at the Valley House.

H. S. Webster was at Derby Line postoffice Tuesday assisting in auditing the books.

There are uncalled for letters at the postoffice for Oscar Fissette and Mons Archill Joyal.

Misses Theda and Ruth Corley of Irasburg have been visiting at the home of P. H. Wedge.

Mrs. Preston Skinner is assisting the Fletcher Post Card company during the holiday rush of business.

Annis Priest fell one day last week and suffered from torn ligaments about the knee and one broken rib.

Miss Mildred Bryant of St. Johnsbury is assisting in the offices of the Fletcher Post Card Company.

Several members of the Orleans club went to Barton and took sweet revenge at whilst one evening last week.

Mrs. C. E. Jenkins has returned from her former home at Amsterdam, N. Y., where she has been for several weeks.

L. M. Kinsley, A. D. Beede, A. C. Harris and Frank Parlin are at Long Pond for the remainder of the open season.

An examination for a postoffice clerk will be held at the postoffice Dec. 11. Information may be had of Harry L. Bassett.

Charles Scott, George and Hugh Rowell, Randolph Turnbull and Dean Mathews are home from college for the holiday vacation.

One of the features of the Book and Thimble club community fair will be the sale of a quilt containing the names of over 1000 people of Orleans and vicinity.

Dean Corley is at Johnson this week to meet the committee to purchase supplies for the New Sterling Trust company of which Mr. Corley is to be treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartlett and son, and Mrs. P. B. Fisk of Fairlee and Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin and family of Barton was the Thanksgiving party entertained at C. E. Gay's.

The next regular meeting of Philemon Lodge, K. of P., will be held Tuesday, Dec. 7th. Work in the rank of knight. It is expected that P. G. C. Rand of Hardwick will be present.

Miss Clara Dwinell has been obliged on account of ill health, to resign her position in the first grade of the graded school and Ruth Heidger of Greensboro has been elected to take her place.

Ara Putney seriously injured his foot one day last week while working with the construction gang at the Brown bridge. A heavy steel beam dropping upon his foot was the cause of the injury.

Among the successful deer hunters were Sam Robb, Fred E. Hunt, E. C. Skinner, Hiram Allen, Preston Skinner, C. P. Skinner, Alton Baird, A. H. Swett, William Chatfield, Charles Westcott, Ted Lee, Herbert Lee and E. G. Stevens. We are beginning to tire of too much venison at our house.

The show at the opera house by the Harrison players gave splendid satisfaction. If the prices had been 50, 75 and $1.00 instead of 10, 20 and 30 cents everybody would have thought it one of the finest things seen here in a long time. Our only suggestion for improvement would be to so arrange the cast so that "Esther" would appear in the ballet.

All articles donated for the club fair may be left with Mrs. Swett or Mrs. Glen Dodge at any time with the exception of canned goods, plants and vegetables, which may be brought to the opera hall Monday, Dec. 6. The committee will be prepared to serve lunches during the afternoon and supper at the usual time. There will music by the orchestra during the evening. Everyone cordially invited.

The Cruller Lambs.

Our kitchen's nice round Christmas time! I can't see in the great big pot; It's where the crullers—they cum fum— An' what's inside is good as hot! I must stand too near the stove "Cause 'spatters' might get on my dress. My mother thinks that things round there Would burn her little girl, I guess.

An' so I stay real close to her When she puts aprons round her waist And rolls the rings out on a board. Sometimes she lets me have a "taste." An' then, you see, I'm helpin' too. I help her 'member she mus' make A lot of little cruller lambs— I like that kind of Christmas cake!

The lamb when he goes in the pot He's yellow, an' he looks all flat. But when they lift him out of it, W'y, he's all brown an' round an' fat! I have to wait till he's "cooled off." "Fore I can eat my lamb to eat; An' mother, she says "wool" on him Wif sugar—th'at makes him sweet.

An' after—other comes, I get a—how he does; My mother—how he does; She says—how he does; She don't—how he does; But father—how he does; I squeaked—how he does; An' that's it—how he does; —Marie Louise Tompkins in Harper's Weekly

HERE'S NATURE'S OWN
REMEDY FOR CATARRH*Hyomei Relieves Catarrh Without the Use of Dangerous Drugs

Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a real remedy for catarrh was known.

Hyomei is an oil and its air is breathed through a small inhaler furnished with it, for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of this Hyomei-laden air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with a powerful germ-killing and health-giving antiseptic.

Sprays and lotions often cause disorders of the respiratory tracts or bring on some other diseases and never make a permanent cure of catarrh. But when the air of Hyomei penetrates to the inmost air cells of the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen it not only kills the germs in the throat and nose, but kills the bacilli in the blood, freeing the mucous membranes from poisonous microbes and giving perfect health.

A complete outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

F. D. Pierce has so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that he agrees to return the money to any purchaser who is not thoroughly satisfied.
